

Piracy – An Update

Richard Neylon

Partner

Holman Fenwick Willan, London

Lawyers for international commerce

London, Paris, Rouen, Brussels, Geneva, Piraeus, Dubai, Shanghai, Hong Kong, Singapore, Melbourne, Sydney, Perth, São Paulo

Topics

- Somalia
 - Current fears and challenges
- West Africa
 - Current fears and challenges

Holman Fenwick Willan has 400 lawyers operating in 14 offices across 11 countries

Somalia

- Future hijackings

HFW receives unanimous praise for its "excellent work in shipping litigation" (Chambers Global)

Somalia

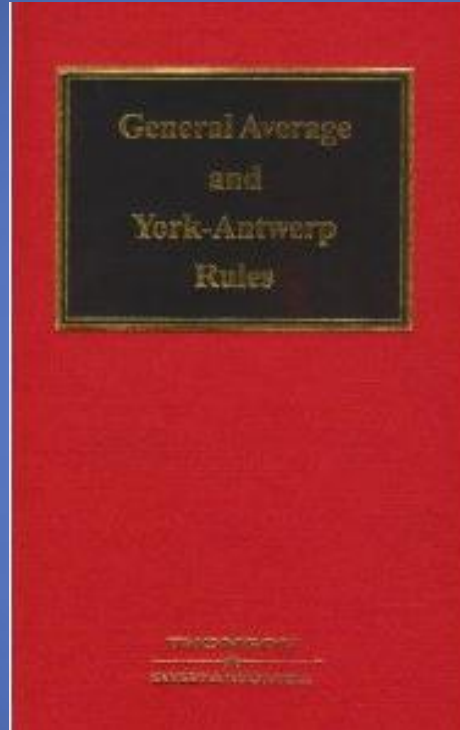

Somalia

- Diminishing Risks?
- Disputes

"This top tier shipping firm is an extremely strong force in global marine matters" (Chambers Global)

Somalia

"outstanding in-depth knowledge of all marine matters"
(Legal 500 UK)

West Africa

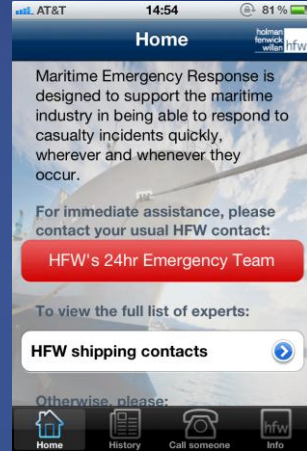

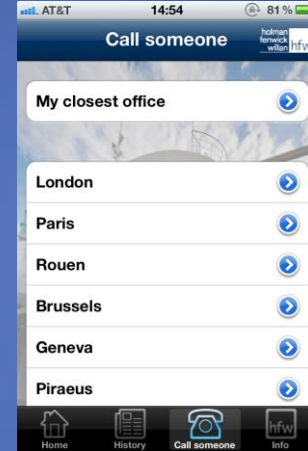

- Appropriate anti-piracy measures
- Armed Guards
- Tracking and tracing pirates/cargo
- Effective deterrence from nation states
- Future liabilities

In 2013 HFW Hong Kong won the Asia Legal Business Award for Shipping Law Firm of the Year for the 9th time in 10 years

Emergency Response App

- Provides immediate 24-hour emergency legal support
- HFW contact information
- Available for download from:
- www.hfw.com

- Richard Neylon
- Partner
266919
- Holman Fenwick Willan

Tel: +44 (0)20 7264 8100

Mobile: +44 (0)7786

richard.neylon@hfw.com

Piracy – An Update

Richard Neylon

Partner

Holman Fenwick Willan, London

Lawyers for international commerce

London, Paris, Rouen, Brussels, Geneva, Piraeus, Dubai, Shanghai, Hong Kong, Singapore, Melbourne, Sydney, Perth, São Paulo

IUMI London 2013

September 15 - 18

