

ESG factors - vital for the future

11th January 2021

In IUMI's latest podcast IUMI President Richard Turner, IUMI Executive Committee Vice-Chairperson Anneke Kooiman and IUMI Policy Director Hendrike Kühl come together to talk about the growing importance of environmental, social and governance factors for marine insurance. The team discusses the positive contribution ESG factors offer companies both in the short and long term, and highlight specific areas of interest and IUMI's role.
