

IUMI Eye podcast now out

15th December 2022

Our popular quarterly newsletter IUMI Eye is now available as a podcast and features interviews with some of the authors. Highlights of this edition include ShipIn's Amit Shalev who discusses loss prevention using AI, IUMI Secretary General Lars Lange on the latest IMO Maritime Safety Committee session; HFW on the implications for insurers of the NordStream pipeline attack; Julian Kirkman-Page of Russell Group on how a holistic view of trade can help marine insurers understand current and future exposure, as well as more details on IUMI's Masterclass in Cargo Insurance programme.
