

IUMI Eye podcast now out

28th March 2023

Our popular quarterly newsletter IUMI Eye is now available as a podcast and features interviews with some authors. Highlights of this edition include Frédéric Denèfle, IUMI President & Managing Director at Garex, who discusses the challenges around reinsurance cover and the correlation with the Ukraine War. IUMI Secretary General Lars Lange reports on the latest IMO's Marine Environment Protection and Maritime Safety Committee sessions; Sean Dalton, Vice-Chair of the IUMI Executive Committee & Executive Vice President, Head of Marine Underwriting, North America for Munich Reinsurance America, discusses the challenges marine insurers are facing in a time of increased inflation. Guillermo Zamora, CEO of Marlin Blue and an IUMI Professional Partner, offers guidance for adequately implementing and applying IMO liability and compensation conventions.
