

Marine insurance statistics – the latest picture

30th September 2024

Listen to our latest podcast if you want to discover how marine insurance has been faring in 2023 and into 2024.

We feature Jun Lin and Astrid Seltsmann from the IUMI Facts & Figures Committee who talk about the current state of marine insurance within the wider context of the macro-economy. Both guests presented their findings at our 150th anniversary conference in Berlin and this podcast gives an overview of their presentations in advance of IUMI publishing its annual Stats Report later this month.
